JUAREZ VENTURE SUCCESS

INAUGURAL MEETING RESULTS IN FIRM ESTABLISHMENT OF MEXICAN RACING.

Keen Interest Aroused Among Wealthy Mexicans and Elaborate Plans Under Consideration for Next Winter's Sport.

El Paso, Tex., February 15.—The inaugural meeting of the Jockey Club Juarez has proved a gratifying success, both from a racing and a financial standbount. It is true the club has not garnered any profits on its initial venture, but expenses have been met, and the attendance and interest shown in the meeting have encouraged Messrs, Winn, Terrazas and other associates to make more elaborate plans for next winter's meeting.

One effect of the present meeting that is most gratifying is the deep interest that it has aroused among the wealthier class of Mexicans, as a result of which many have already organized racing establishments, while others are contemplating taking up the sport as a pastime. Outside of Don Alberto Terrazas, who has already purchased an interest in a pretentious racing establishment, the most noted recruit to the sport is Ignacio de la Torre Miers, a son-in-law of President Diaz, and a millionaire many times over. This gentleman has been an enthusiastic daily visitor to the track. He has engaged, James Johnston, who recently left the employ of H. G. Bedwell, to train his stable at a yearly salary of $5,000. In addition, Johnston will have a contingent interest in the winnings of the horses of the stable. Of the half-dozen or more Mexican Derby candidates now in Johnston's charge, Guayule and Gondola have shown the best trails. Both are being pointed for the big Mexican City event, which Senor Torre Miers is most desirous of winning.

One result of the present meeting in the city of Juarez has been the increased demand for capable teachers of the Spanish language. This demand comes from horsemen and bookmakers, who are desirous of learning the language of the bons, as they realize that if they hope to race and operate successary to be able to speak the language of the country.

sary to be able to speak the language of the contry.

Everyone who has attended the present Juarez meeting realizes that Mexico is a promising field for the breeding and racing of the thoroglabred. Such well-known horsemen as Charles Van Meter, James Blute, Fred Luzader, Tom Mannix and John Marklein have been putting in their spare time studying the Mexican tongue, and others are so well advanced that they can speak the language fluently.

The quaint city of Juarez offers many attractions to the visiting horsemen besides the races. The weekly bull fight, held every Sunday, is well attended by the racing fraternity, while the cocking main has its full quota of devotees. This sport is heat on Monday, which is an off day for the horsemen. Many well-known faces can be seen around the "pit" at the weekly gatherings, and no little money changes hands on the results of the contests. Among those in regular attendance are Starter Mars Cassidy and Jake Marklein. The club under whose auspices the fights are conducted has had constructed a new building, which was opened recently. Invitations were sent to the mayor and city officials of Juarez and to the more prominent of the horsemen, all of whom attended.

men, all of whom attended.

El Paso, Tex., February 15.—Two favorites out of six—Rue and Seasick—rewarded form followers at Terrazas Park today. Both were of the lukewarm and receding kind and were left on the layers' hands after a brief flurry of early speculation. Practically, therefore, the running of every race resulted in good profit for the ring. Proceedings began with the success of a 15 to 1 chance. Egotist, which had finished a consistent tail-ender in the poorest company in his four preceding starts.

Glorio's defeat in the afternoon's principal feature created the greatest comment. The race was won by Orbed Lad in runaway fashion. The uncertain son of Smile led by a wide gap from start to finish. There was seemingly no serious move made behind him until it was too late. To put it mildly, jockey Rice rode Glorio with exasperating overconfidence. Leopold Blum made further purchases of thoroughbreds for Mexican racing at Juarez today, Landlord, Arcourt and Opinien being the horses acquired.

The last fortnight of racing at Terrazas Park was ushered in ausniciously with summerlike weather, the attendance growing steadily, and, with the same excellent standard of racing maintained to the end, the sport will have surely won its way into local public favor.

TAMPA FREE LIST SUSPENDED.

Tampa, Fla., February 15.—D. Hammond's La Reine Hindoo came right back today with a smart performance and beat the erstwhile local champion sprinter. Billie Hibbs. The latter was tavorite an inadequately handled by jockey Lewis, succumbed in the closing strides by the narrowest margin. The fight for third place was spirited and that John Garner landed it was due largely to the superiority of Dennison to Nicolai, who was astride Gypsy Girl. The inconsistent Punky made his last appearance here when he failed to be a serious contender in the fifth race and was beaten off by a mediocre lot, Fundamental winning in a romp from McAndrews and Charlotte Hamilton. The judges at once issued an edict barring him from further starting and will probe deeper into the running of the race.

Spirited finishes marked the running of most of the races. Ideal weather conditions again served to bring out a large crowd. The suspension of the free list today, it was thought, would cause a noticeable decrease in attendance, and that this was not the case, proved gratifying to the management. Favorites were downed in succession in the first four races. Several first-time starters during the day added some uncertainty to the racing. In the feature race, Barney Schreiber's representative, Judge Henderson, raced impressively. In the same race J. O'Neill started Vo Tambien, a Missouri-bred filly by Newton Bennington's one-time star, Royal, out of Yana. She in nowise resembled her illustrious name-sake.

T. P. Hayes will ship a consignment of racers to Jacksonville next Thursday.

DERBY IN THE NORTHWEST.

A new Derby is to be added to the list of fixtures that take their name from the great Epsom Downs race. This is to be run at Claresholm, in Alberta, Can., next July, and is to be known as the Claresholm Derby. It is a sweep of $20, half forfeit, with $150 added, for horses foaled in Alberta, to go a

THIRTY LEADING WINNING OWNERS OF 1910

H. G. Bedwell was the first owner to pass the $10,000 mark in stable earnings in the yet young racing campaign of 1910. There is no small probability that he will make a vigorous fight for supremney over all other owners this year. He has a number of really excellent race horses in his string and is sure to have a long lead before the castern stables get into the fray. Unluckily for him, values in winter racing are much lower than they were a few years back. Then the same number of reace won would have produced at least double the sum now credited to his stable. Phil T. Chinn has done very well at Jacksonville and is a good second, well in advance of Barney Schreiber. The latter has some two-year-olds in action that give promise of coming to the aid of Jack Atkin in upholding the stable earnings of the big Missouriam. F. J. Pons. R. L. Thomas, Garrity and Dunlap, R. F. Carman and J. Hewitt are other owners who have good reason to view the new year favorably. The thirty most successful ewners and their stable records are now:

GOSSIP FROM KENTUCKY TRAINING GROUNDS.

Louisville, Ky., February 15.—Ed Alvey brought Friend Harry in from the Douglas farm yesterday and turned him over to trainer John Walters at Churchill Downs. Walters will have the care of the half-brother to Pink Coat until Pinkola and Colonel Rob. Alvey's two horses now racing in Mexico, return home in the care of his regular trather eaxt mouths opened for entries the coming spring and summer here and at Latonla, and both he and Pinkola will more than likely be named among the entries in Canadian stakes, including the Toronto Cup.

PROPOSED STEEPLECHASE CHANGES.

New York, February 15.—The rules committee of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association and the rules committee of the Hunts Committee will decide at Philadelphia tomorrow whether three-year-olds will be permitted to race in steeplechases in America before October. Under existing rules it is not permissible for horses under the jurisdiction of this controlling body of the cross-country sport to do so before this specified month in each year. The intention of the conference is to discuss an amendment to the rule which will permit the three-year-olds to race at an earlier date. The published report that such an amendment to the rules had been made was erroneous. The object of tomorrow's conference is to decide the question. Some of the advocates of the proposed amendment to the rules are pleading for the time to be changed to July. They point to the fact that three-year-olds race in France during July. Another matter to be discussed by the steeplechase committee is the defining of a bona fide hunter. In England a rule was recently passed that to earn a certificate a hunter must be made to take as many jumps as possible in a hunt and must be hunted at least nine times.

AUGUST BELMONT'S HORSES IN TRAINING.

New York, February 15.—Counting fourteen year-lings in France and two old lorses—one turned out at Saratoga and one at the Nursery Farm—August Belmont will this year maintain a stable of fifty-four thoroughbreds. Thirteen of this lot are two-year-olds in Thomas Welsh's stables at Gravesend, sixteen—eleven two-year-olds and five matured horses—are wintering at Garnet, S. C., under the charge of John Whalen, and nine are horses of ragious ages at trainer Watson's English establishment at Newmarket.

John Whalen, and nine are horses of warious ages at trainer Watson's English establishment at Newmarket.

The yearlings included in the above total are at Mr. Belmont's French stud in Normandy near Dieppe. They are the get of Octagon, Rock Sand, Ethelbert, Orme and Hastings, and they will be campaigned in France and England next season. There are more yearlings at the Nursery Farm, the offspring of Hastings, Rock Sand, Singleton and other stallions of Kentucky, which swell the Belmont aggregate to nearly a hundred race horses.

Turned out at the Nursery Stud is Practical, a four-year-old brother to Priscillian. He was not absolutely sound when John Whalen sent him to Kentucky in the fall. Mr. Belmont, who visited the Nursery Farm not long ago, says that Practical is wintering satisfactorily and he expects the gelding to race next season. Whalen will probably handle Practical when he comes back to the races.

At Saratoga is Don Diego, a seven-year-old son of Henry of Navarre and Bella-Donna, and a half-brother to Beldame and Don de Oro. Don Diego was always a good looker and Jack Joyner, who developed him, found that he had a lot of speed. But one of Don Diego's legs is in bad shape and Mr. Belmont is trying the snow cure for his trouble, Following is a list of the Belmont horses in Thomas Welsh's charge at Gravesend:

LADIES' DAY THRONG TAXES CAPACITY OF JACKSONVILLE ENCLOSURE.

Several Long Shots Succeed in Finishing in Front-Taboo Takes Feature in Driving Finish with Old Honesty.

Jacksonville, Fla., February 15.—This was ladies' day at Monercif Park and the largest crowd of the meeting turned out. The attendance was approximately 8,000. The crowd packed the aisles of the grandstand and before the running of the first race standing room was at a premium. Secretary McLennan had provided a good card and stirring contests resulted, with heads separating the first and second horses in three of the finishes. It was a bad day for favorite backers, however, only one of the first choices winning. Three of the winners were at long odds, including Abe Attell at 25 to 1 and San Gil, about which 30 to 1 was quoted. The feature race, a condition affair at a mile, brought together Old Honesty, Eyebright, Taboo, Campaigner and 0. K. Herndon, and furnished a splendid contest, with Taboo the victor by a short head over Old Honesty. The latter was ably ridden by Goldstein, but Taboo was his superior. Jockey Obert, who won with the two outsiders, Abe Attell and San Gil, was incapacitated while riding Flarney in the fifth race. Rounding the first turn there was a lot of crowding and Flarney was Janumed against the latter for the latter was ably ridden by Goldstein, but Taboo was his superior. Oberon, winner of the sixth race, was boosted $400 over his entered selling price by W. V. Cassey, owner of Mamie Algol, which finished second. It was Oberon's second victory in the last three days.

C. L. Jones is due to arrive from Havana some day this week. His mission to Cuba was to look over the Almandares track and to decide on whether a race meeting would be given there this winter.

In announcing a reduction of purses during the extension of the Oakland meeting. President Williams of the New California Jockey Club issued the following statement:

"Owing to the fact that the meeting at Oakland is being conducted with a big loss, President Thomas H. Williams of the New California Jockey Chub announces that for the period covering the extension of forty days the purses will be somewhat reduced. When it was originally announced that there would be sixty days of racing at the Oakland track President Williams made certain promises as to the value of purses, which have more than been lived up to. It was figured that racing would be conducted at a loss and the extension of forty days was made only to help the horsemen during the time that remains until the opening of the summer circuits, and also to maintain the sport. President Williams and bis associates feel that the horsemen should do their share in alding the situation and for this reason it was decided to reduce the purses. No purse will be offered daily as before."

ESTIMATE OF ENGLISH RACING'S COST.

A writer in a recent number of a weekly periodical estimates that England annually spends $40,000,000 on the sport of seeing thoroughbreds compete in contests of speed. Commenting on the matter, the writer says:

rests of speed. Commenting on the matter, the writer says:

"Rather large figures. Yet they do not cover the price of top hats and spats," as showing how general racing is as a national sport on the "tigat little island."

The figures given by the writer "were compiled by an English authority in such matters, at the expense of some labor, and are as accurate, perhaps, as possible." The estimates, from the American viewpoint, indeed are liberal, but, nevertheless, entertaining. To quote again from the periodical:

"The sport of the English turf is enormously expensive, carried on as it is by the richest and most influential portion of the population. This is the society sport, indeed the sport of royalty and nobility par excellence. The sport of kings is practiced in no other land in more kingly fashion. We advance these figures as covering its cost:

GARNER LEADS THE JOCKEYS.

By carrying off the riding honors of the winter fracks for the second week in succession, Guy Garner, Earl Linnell's skillfur apprentice, has advanced to the head of the list of American jockeys for 1910. Garner piloted eleven winners last week, as against seven ridden by V. Powers, who was tied with the lightweight for the honors of 1910 at the last publication of the jockey list. The record of the thirty leading riders from January 1 to and including the racing of Saturday last is as follows:

REMINISCENCES OF FORMER STARS.

Louisville, Ky., February 15.—The recent death of Faverdale at Major T. J. Carson's farm at Lexington marked the passing of the last of the great two-year-olds of 1888, the year that brought the inaugural running of the Futurity Stakes.

Proctor Knott, whoner of the first running of the big rece, died while he was still in training, but the mighty Salvator, which ran second, died only last year, while Galen, the third horse, like the winner, died early in his career and the other starters—Senorita, Lady Pulsifer, Eric, Auricoma, Forest King, Princess Bowling, Life Staff, Philauder, The Lioness and Village Maid—like Proctor Knott, Salvator and Galen, the three placed horses, are all gone.

But four of the owners who sent starters to the yator and Galen, the three placed horses, are all gone.

But four of the owners who sent starters to the post in the first Futurity are still alive. They are J. B. Haggin, W. S. Barnes, P. J. Dwyer and G. B. Morris, while the members of the Louisville racing firm that owned the winner, Proctor Knottmamely, George and Hiram Scoggan and Sam Bryant—have all long since died, as has also Jim Gray, who owned Galen; D. D. Withers, who owned Faverdale, Eric and Auricoma; Major B. G. Thomas, owner of Lady Pulsifer, and Captain S. S. Brown, who sent Schorlia to the post. While Faverdale did not start in the Futurity, he was the second largest two-year-old money winner of that season, and in the Junior Champion Stakes raced with Proctor Knott and Salvator. He won $22,045 at that age.

Hamburg, Mesmerist, Colin, His Highness, Morello and other stars have trod the turf since 1888. Faverdale, Salvator and Proctor Knott's year, but somehow a halo has always hung around the kindergarten racers of that season, which continually grows brighter as the years roll on.

The late D. D. Withers, who bred and owned Faverdale, first raced the horse as the Sensation colt. He was a turfman of marked peculiarities and one of his rules was not to name his horses until they had qualified for a name by winning a race. That was before the birth of the Jockey Chirand the passing of a turf law requiring a horse to be named before he can race as is the rule today. Withers called his New Jersey breeding establishment Faverdale and the conferring of this name on the son of Sensation was a high compliment, as the builder of the famous Monmouth Park race track always said he would never mane a horse for his place that did not have all the characteristics of a high-class racer.

Faverdale surely filled the bill, as even against two such cracks as Proctor Knott and Salvator he was rated as a siar, and old-time turfmen still question if any other season produced a trio of two-year-olds that compared with these. Salvator went on loss stores and since tra But four of the owners who sent starters to the

EDWARD MAGINN LATONIA SECRETARY.

Cincinnati, O., February 15.—Manager John Hachmeister of the Latonia track left last night for a visit to Louisville, where he will consult with Louisville owners of Churchill Downs in regard to the spring meeting there. Before his departure, Mr. Hachmeister announced that Edward Magina, of St. Louis, would act as racing secretary at Latonia. Mr. Maginn filled a similar position at the Fair Grounds track, St. Louis, when it was in its heyday. Purses of the value of $400 will be provided for the better class of horses during the approaching meeting at Latonia.
